AUC Class of 2010: Come to the Library's "Send-Off" Celebration on May 13

On Thursday, May 13, from 4 PM-6 PM, your AUC Woodruff Library will host a "Senior Send-Off" for this year's AUC graduates. They'll be food, ice cream, music and drawings for prizes to help send our grads off in style. Top prize is round trip airfare to any location within the continental United States courtesy of AirTrain Airways!

Part of the AUC's traditional "Senior Week" celebration, the "Send-Off" is the Library's way of saying "Thank You" to our 2010 graduates for their ideas, input and patience as we planned, implemented and successfully completed Phase I Renovation.

"Send-Off" guests will be the first AUC students to get a peek at the newly renovated Main Reading Room, Graduate Study Suite, Education Resource Center and other reconfigured spaces under construction since January.

The event is free and open to all AUC graduates receiving undergraduate and graduate degrees during this year's Spring Commencement. You'll need a special "Senior Send-Off" wristband to participate in the drawings. So be sure to get one from an AUC "Send-Off" representatives on your campus during "Senior Week" or as you enter the event on May 13.

To learn more about the "Senior Send-Off" Celebration, call 404-978-2114 or email acarver@aucr.edu.

FROM THE ARCHIVES: Gardner Taylor Collection Open for Research

The Rev. Gardner C. Taylor reviews documents in the Archives Research Center. His collection of manuscript writings is now open for research at the Woodruff Library.

The Gardner C. Taylor Collection of manuscript writings is open for scholarly research at the Library's Archives Research Center.

Named the "dean of the nation's black preachers" by Time Magazine, the Rev. Gardner C. Taylor donated his collection of writings to the AUC Woodruff Library in 2008. The Taylor Collection spans a period from 1947 to 2001 and includes more than 1,100 sermons, speeches, prayers, eulogies and lectures.

The Woodruff Library Archives Research Center and the Interdenominational Theological Center

(ITC) are working in partnership to help preserve and promote Rev. Taylor's legacy. In 2005, ITC opened the Gardner C. Taylor Archives and Preaching Laboratory with more than 150 audio and video recordings of Taylor sermons. ITC also facilitated Taylor's donation to the Woodruff Library Archives and provided financial support to prepare the manuscript collection for research use.
